Chapter 1 by Gyro

The world is broken. All money, popularity, and social class depended on this one event. We all had to participate in a belly flop tournament. People spend all year gaining weight for this one monumental tournament and it was tomorrow.

Chapter 2 by Alvin

I had been trying to gain weight for about four months now. But I was somehow, thin like a twig, with a little bulge of a belly. I realised that I had to change my tactics. I couldn't rely on my body weight. I had to invent a new tactic. Some sort of technique, that would push me over the line. I planned and considered and tested for weeks.
